“ Sister Bran-
God knew that you were suffering and that you were in pain, but moreover, he knew that you would never be well on earth again. All of our hearts broke to lose you in this way, but know that you didn't go alone, for part of all of us went with you when God took you home. Rest in eternal peace, my dear Sister, until that one day when we meet again. Know that you were always loved and now missed terribly each and every day. Remember, every now and then, to smile down upon your family to let us know you're not alone. All my love forever, Your Brother

“ I can't believe it will be a week tonight, Bran. This is so surreal. I just listened to your messages again. I re-saved the ones about to fall off. I know that you are happy where you are. I hope that you know — Kim said it best in her post: you were always loved. I won't say RIP.... Make a ruckus—have the best party ever! I know that you must be loving your new, perfect body—I know that you are having the best reunion there. Eternal Life and Joy are yours now. But we miss you just the same. Love you, Brandyn....

“ Our heart breaks for Nick and Dominic. We all lost a piece of us and we will continue to be supportive to both of you. Your Aunt and I will be here when you need us for advice, love, encouragement or if you just want to hang out. We love you and will always be there for you both.

David Rhodes - October 31, 2021 at 10:38 AM

“ You are such a good guy and those boys are blessed to have you and Kim both.

Katrina - October 31, 2021 at 01:19 PM

“ Kim, I only met you and Brandy once, but I have heard stories about you two forever. Katrina loves you both very much. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ I honestly don't even know where to begin. It's been so hard to accept this news of Brandy's passing. Brandy was a huge and one of the best parts of my life. We cheered on our kids together in swimming and football, we spent many waking hours together, raising our kids together that Tommy called her his other mother and the boys his brothers from the other mother. She gave me strength when I needed it and showed me I was strong enough to tackle the hard stuff. She had great advice to give and loved to give it. I just wish I would have followed more of it. Pink was both of our favorite color. Words cannot say how grateful and blessed I am to have had the chance to tell her how much I loved her and how much I appreciated her for her friendship and support she gave me when I needed it most. She was always the first one to take care of you if needed. She loved her boys so much that there are no words that could ever describe how proud she was of them. She was so proud of the business man you became Nick, amazed by the back yards you created and the patio table you painted, you have a talent that awed her. Dominic, she always bragged about how smart you are and hoped those brains of yours will give you everything you could ever want. She was a true athlete and enjoyed all sports, most especially the ones she played (softball, field hockey) and the ones her kids played. I know the loss of her dad last year was really hard on her but now she is with him again. She often talked about her fabulous mom whom she loved so very much, her brother and his family and her beautiful nieces, and Kim and her family, you have been so good to Brandy. She often told me how proud she was of you with how far you went in your job, she loved you & was so worried about you when you had your surgery that she called me and asked me to pray for you. She talked about how handsome Rico was and how excited she was to see where life was going to take him and how wonderful you all were to her when she moved to Colorado. I could go on and on but I'll just end with saying she took a part of my heart with her and I will hold her friendship in a special part of mine forever. I know you are no longer suffering my dear friend and you are now finally at Peace. I hold strong in my faith that yes you will be watching down on all of us especially those wonderful boys of yours! I love all of you, Cozza family, I'm sending you lots of hugs and prayers. May God bless you all through the most difficult days ahead.

Gerri Brouse - October 29, 2021 at 03:23 PM

“ Gerri, thank you for your words. They truly bring love to our hearts and a smile to our faces. She loved you and was so appreciative for your friendship.

Kim Cozza-Rhodes - October 29, 2021 at 10:53 PM

“ You were always loved. Thank you for coming back to all of us. I miss you so much and I hope you can hear me talking to you all the time. My heart is broken.

Kim Cozza-Rhodes - October 29, 2021 at 02:58 PM

“ We met each while kids. I had such and incredible friendship with you and Kim. You both always made me feel like a sister. From going to sleepovers, Proms., Homecomings , Sharing some of the same classes. You two had a sisterhood no one else had. Inseparable and both Incredible field hockey players/ athletes/ smart funny. I have so many memories with you and your family. I miss you so much. I know your at peace with your dad. God Bless your family during this difficult time. Until we see each other again. Love always Grace (Casselberry)

Grace James - October 29, 2021 at 02:30 PM

“ Thank you Grace. We were lucky to have met you and I was honored to be in your wedding.

Kim Cozza-Rhodes - October 29, 2021 at 10:54 PM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I know she loved you both so much and was a great light in your life. Beyond flowers or candles I wish there was a way to send hugs.

Cynthia Fischer Shaffer - October 29, 2021 at 11:00 AM

“ Nick and Dom,
We were so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. We used to enjoy talking with her during some of your activities -- namely swimming and youth football. She was so very proud of you both! You were her world! You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ I lost another piece of my heart. Dearest daughter, you will be forever loved and missed. I will see you and Dad soon

Carol R Cozza - October 29, 2021 at 09:30 AM

“ Mom I am going to miss you so much. I'm so sorry that you will no longer be apart of Nick and I's lives. I am so grateful for the love you showed me, the advice you gave, and the wisdom you shared. You were an incredible woman and God gained an angel. I know we had our differences but you are always with me. I hope you get to spend time with Grandpa and Dad now. I love you and will miss you dearly.

Dominic Cozza - October 29, 2021 at 12:56 AM

“ So very nice Dom.

Kim Cozza-Rhodes - October 29, 2021 at 10:56 PM

“ Mom I love you and miss you already, please watch over me.

Nick Cozza - October 29, 2021 at 12:32 AM

“ Your mom will ALWAYS be watching over you and Dominic. Remember, she loved you both dearly and you both are her greatest gifts. Uncle David and I love you both so much. You are NOT alone.

Kim Cozza-Rhodes - October 29, 2021 at 02:50 PM

“ Mom, you had many great qualities where to even begin... I can't begin to thank her enough for all the opportunities she gave Dominic and I. She did her job well for the Federal Bureau of Prisons earning many awards along her career. She excelled in many other areas throughout her years such as fast pitch softball or running a youth football league. I will never forget all the times we laughed and cried together, all the advice she gave, and her unconditional love she smothered us with. She ALWAYS told us how much she cherished her boys and the love she had to watch us grow and accomplish our goals. I only wish I could continue to share my growth and accomplishments with her, I pray she's watching down from above. May she suffer no more, and live an eternal happy life in the land of the angels. One day we'll meet again and I will give her the biggest longest hug as I will miss her dearly and hold her close in my heart till then. I love you mom
