“ Kelly had this amazing talent to make everyone feel better and at ease. I remember my first time visiting Denver office, pretty stressed and nervous, Kelly came to say hello and right there, in front of everyone around he says: "You are awesome". All embarrassed, I didn't know what to say. Then he turns to my manager, and repeats: "She's awesome". I wish I could tell you Kelly, how much it made me feel welcome and appreciated. It was so easy and fun to be around you. You will be missed!!

“ Kelly was a mentor and a friend. He had this way of trusting people unconditionally from the start that made you feel so comfortable around him.
I remember the first time I visited the Denver office and seeing him completing the puzzle so patiently in the kitchen, there was so much peace in it.
He was hilarious and his jokes would make work easier for everyone around.
Kelly, Thanks for everything you did for me.
I have learnt so much from you. I miss you.

“ Despite all of Kelly's efforts to come off as tough, unapproachable and un-phased by those around him, he was a bad liar. His kindness and compassion always slipped out.

My adventures (and misadventures) with Kelly Feagler are countless. He is a complete anomaly and I will miss him more than I can express.

“ Kelly was one of my favorite people of all time. He was truly selfless, fun to be around, and did so many kind things for my wife and I. Once, many years ago, I had thrown my back out and Kelly pulled me into a conference room at work, had me lay on a table and cracked my back like his chiropractor. It brought me some temporary relief and I'm so glad we didn't get caught! I'm so very sad to hear of Kelly's passing and my heartfelt condolences to all his family and friends. RIP Kelly, we love you and you will be missed.
