Matthew Blanchard Steadman

Born January 12, 1991 Death June 23, 2019

Matthew was born to Tim and Dana Steadman in West Hills California.

He moved with his family at the age of 3 to Westminster, CO. He is survived by his parents, Tim Steadman, and Dana Kaetterhenry Steadman, brothers James Steadman and Daniel Steadman and Sister Kristen Steadman, Grandpa Loren Steadman and many aunts, uncles, cousins.

Matt worked as a Hydro Vac Operator with Brand X and part-time on the De-Icing crew at Denver International Airport with Aero Mag in the winter. He Also volunteered with the sound team at Confluence Ministries, serving the Denver Area. He was a good friend and support to many. If there was a need, Matt wanted to help or find a solution.

To the many who befriended and embraced Matt in this life, in the easy and the hard struggles he faced, we his family thank you for our love and friendship, and support.

We know he loved God, and received the forgiveness of sin through the sacrificial blood of Jesus Christ – and is fully receiving the perfect love of Christ now.
